ELIGIBILITY

Eligibility of applicants

The call is open to:

- Individual artists
- Artist collectives
- Cultural operators (managers, curators, etc.)
- Researchers
- Civil society activists

The applicants (in case of collectives, the lead member of the proposal) can be up to 35 years old based in Algeria, Egypt, Jordan, Lebanon, Morocco, Palestine, Tunisia, and for the diaspora from Syria and Libya.

AND

Eligibility of projects

The applicants can present project ideas from all artistic fields.

The applicants do not necessarily have to submit ideas with already developed community-based and contextual creation methodology approach³. Nonetheless, they have to be strongly interested in researching in their contexts and designing innovative projects that are developed with and for their territory, understanding culture in its broadest sense. Applicants have to be motivated to explore contextual creation approaches and methodologies as well as to engage with local communities by using art and culture for social change.

DURATION

The research phase shall take place from February to June 2021.

The production phase shall start in October 2021. The end date will be agreed with each sub-grantee.

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

- 32 selected applicants will receive a research grant in the maximum amount of 3 000 EUR as a lump sum. The grant will have to be used to carry out the necessary research and study in the territory and with the community(ies) the applicant wishes to work with.

³ Cultural and artistic projects that are designed in reply to social, political or economic challenges of the territory, that actively involve the local population in the research, creation and implementation process and that are carried out locally.
